Nutrition Education for the Public

Nutrition Education for the Public Dietetic Practice Group

Nutrition Education for the Public Dietetic Practice Group (NEP DPG) is a dynamic group dedicated to empowering individuals to make healthy food and lifestyle choices. Recognized as experts who effectively translate complex nutrition research into useful strategies for success, the members of NEP are uniquely positioned to meet the needs of diverse populations.

The NEP has 800-900 members and the reach of members is great. Each NEP member has the potential to reach thousands to millions of consumers each year through their roles as educators in community, clinical, and university settings; consultants and private practice counselors; food and nutrition managers; or research scientists. Committed to a standard of excellence, NEP members successfully network with other health care professionals, industry representatives and government agencies to stay on the cutting edge of innovations in nutrition information and keep nutrition in the forefront.
